RISK FACTORS

AN INVESTMENT IN THE SHARES OFFERED HEREBY INVOLVES A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK. YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING RISK FACTORS IN ADDITION TO THE OTHER INFORMATION SET FORTH ELSEWHERE IN THIS PROSPECTUS, INCLUDING THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND NOTES, PRIOR TO MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN THE FLOORING ZONE, INC.

IF WE ARE UNABLE TO EXPAND INTO NEW MARKETS, OUR ABILITY TO GROW OUR BUSINESS AND TO OPERATE PROFITABLY COULD BE MATERIALLY ADVERSELY EFFECTED AND YOU COULD LOSE SOME OR ALL OF THE FUNDS YOU INVEST IN THIS OFFERING. We intend to pursue an aggressive growth strategy for the foreseeable future. Our future operating results will depend largely upon our ability to open and operate new stores successfully. To support our growth, we employ a centralized management information system to integrate our store operations and financial data. There can also be no assurance that we will be able to expand our market presence in our existing markets or successfully enter new or contiguous markets by opening new stores or that any such expansion will not adversely affect our profitability and results of operations. If we are unable to manage this growth effectively, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

IF WE ARE UNABLE TO MANAGE THIS GROWTH EFFECTIVELY, OUR BUSINESS, RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION COULD BE MATERIALLY ADVERSELY AFFECTED. Our ability to successfully open new stores is dependent on a number of factors including:

- o the ability to hire, train and assimilate management and store-level employees
- o the adequacy of our financial resources
- o the ability to identify new and contiguous markets, to locate and construct suitable store sites, to negotiate acceptable lease terms and to successfully compete in new and contiguous markets
- o ability to minimize delay, increased expenses or loss of potential sites due to the complexities associated with the regulatory and permitting processes in the markets in which we attempt to locate our stores

There can be no assurance that we will be able to achieve the planned expansion, that the new stores will be accepted in the marketplace or that they will achieve planned operating results or results comparable with the existing Flooring Zone stores.

THE FLOORCOVERING MARKET IS HIGHLY COMPETITIVE. IF WE ARE UNABLE TO SUCCESSFULLY COMPETE IN THE INDUSTRY, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. Competition in the retail floorcovering market is intense due to the significant number of retailers. The majority of flooring retailers are independently owned and operated stores. In addition, large retailers also provide significant competition, including The Home Depot, Inc., Lowe's and Sears, Roebuck & Co. Another significant competitor in the market is Shaw Industries, Inc., the world's largest carpet manufacturer. In 1995 Shaw Industries announced its decision to move into the retail floorcovering sector and has since acquired Carpetland USA, Inc and New York Carpet World, Inc. The principal methods of competition within the retail floorcovering industry include store location, product selection, merchandising strategy, customer service and price.

THE FLOORCOVERING BUSINESS IS CYCLICAL AND OUR QUARTERLY RESULTS OF OPERATIONS MAY FLUCTUATE SIGNIFICANTLY BASED ON VARIOUS FACTORS SUCH AS SEASONALITY AND ECONOMIC DOWNTURNS. IF WE ENCOUNTER AN UNEXPECTED OR EXTENDED CYCLICAL DOWNTURN, WE MAY NOT HAVE SUFFICIENT FINANCIAL RESOURCES TO CONTINUE OPERATIONS, WHICH COULD RESULT IN YOU LOSING ALL OR PART OF YOUR INVESTMENT IN OUR COMPANY. Our quarterly operating results have fluctuated in the past and are expected to fluctuate in the future as a result of a variety of factors. We expect our business to continue to exhibit some measure of seasonality, which we believe is typical of the floorcovering industry. Individual stores generally experience lower net sales, operating income and cash flow from operations and lower sales of manufactured carpets in the first and fourth fiscal quarters when compared to the second and third quarters, due primarily to the effect of winter weather on home improvement projects. Other factors which may affect operating results include the timing of store openings and related pre-openings expenses, weather conditions, price increases by suppliers, actions by competitors, conditions in the carpet manufacturing, home building and improvement markets and the floorcovering industry in general. In addition, the floorcovering industry historically has been adversely impacted by economic downturns. The industry is also significantly influenced by economic conditions generally and particularly by consumer behavior, consumer confidence, the level of personal

discretionary spending, the condition of the residential and commercial construction industries, interest rates, credit availability and the overall strength of the economy . A prolonged economic downturn could have a material adverse effect on financial results and our ability to continue operations.

WE HAVE REALIZED NET LOSSES FROM OPERATIONS IN EACH OF THE PAST TWO FISCAL YEARS AND IN THE MOST RECENT FISCAL QUARTER, IF WE CANNOT REVERSE THIS TREND YOU COULD LOSE ALL OR PART OF YOUR INVESTMENT IN OUR COMPANY. During the years ended December 31, 2003, and 2002, we realized net losses from operations of $467,460 and $127,099, respectively. While we have realized net income of $15,635 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, we realized a net loss of $43,555 during the most recently ended fiscal quarter. If we are unable to reverse this trend of net losses from operations, depending on the size of those losses, it is unlikely that the Company would be able to continue operations. If we cannot operate profitably, we would expect that the price of our shares will decrease. If we sustain significant or prolonged periods of net losses, we may be unable to continue operations. If we are unable to continue operations, we anticipate our common shares would have little or no value, which means you could lose most or all of the money you invest in this offering.

YOU MAY LOSE THE FULL AMOUNT OF YOUR INVESTMENT IF WE WERE TO LOSE THE SERVICES OF OUR PRESIDENT OR OTHER KEY SENIOR MANAGEMENT MEMBERS. Our is largely dependent on the skills, experience and efforts of its senior management and especially its President and Chief Executive Officer, Jimmy S. Lee. The loss of the services of Mr. Lee or other members of our senior management could have a material adverse effect on our business and prospects. We believe that our future success will also depend in part upon our ability to attract, retain and motivate qualified personnel.

WE ARE DEPENDENT UPON SEVERAL SUPPLIERS OF FLOORCOVERING PRODUCTS. ANY SIGNIFICANT DISRUPTION OR CHANGE IN OUR RELATIONSHIPS WITH THESE SUPPLIER COULD MATERIALLY ADVERSELY EFFECT OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND THE VALUE OF YOUR INVESTMENTS IN OUR COMPANY. We rely on several large independent floorcovering manufacturers for the production of the floorcoverings we sell. In addition, our retail inventory management is highly dependent on the delivery capabilities of these manufacturers. Any significant changes in our relationships with manufacturers, or in the manner in which these manufacturers produce or distribute their products, could have a material adverse effect on our operations. Although these manufacturers have been reliable, high-quality producers, there can be no assurance that in the future these manufacturers will be willing or able to meet our requirements on a timely basis or that their pricing and rebate policies will remain competitive. While we believe there are a number of alternative manufacturers capable of supplying and distributing the floorcovering products we sell, any delays in obtaining alternative suppliers could have a material adverse effect on our operations.

WE HAVE A LIMITED OPERATING HISTORY. We have developed our company's business model based upon our experience in opening and operating three retail floorcovering stores located in southeast Georgia and Northeast Florida. Based upon the success of this offering, we intend to pursue a growth strategy by opening and operating new retail floorcovering stores in areas with greater populations such as Jacksonville, Florida and Atlanta, Georgia and other metropolitan area in the southern states. There can also be no assurance that we will be able to enter new or contiguous markets successfully.

IF WE ARE UNSUCCESSFUL IN GAINING MARKET SHARE IN THE MARKETS INTO WHICH WE EXPAND, WE WILL BE UNABLE TO GENERATE REVENUE FROM THOSE STORES AND YOU MAY LOSE YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. Our proposed business is based on our belief that we can successfully enter and compete in new markets. We believe market acceptance will be dependent on a number of factors including:

- o advertising and promotion;
- o acceptance from consumers;
- o availability of competing products and services;
- o pricing factors;
- o other intangible factors.

The abovementioned factors change rapidly and cannot be predicted with certainty. If we are unable to properly analyze market need and acceptance, we may not gain the market share in these new markets that we need to generate sufficient revenue to operate profitably. If our new stores cannot operate profitably, that could materially adversely effect the results of operations of the Company, which could result in you losing your entire investment.

THERE IS NO MARKET FOR OUR SECURITIES WHICH WILL CAUSE YOUR INVESTMENT TO BE EXTREMELY ILLIQUID AND VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO SELL. Currently, our stock is not listed on any established trading system. Therefore, the market for our common stock is limited and we cannot assure you that a market will ever be developed or maintained. The fact that most of our stock is held by a small number of investors, further reduces the liquidity of our stock and the likelihood that any active trading market will develop.

The market for our common stock is likely to be volatile and many factors may affect the market. These include, for example:

- o our success, or lack of success, in marketing our products and services;
- o competition;
- o governmental regulations; and
- o fluctuations in operating results.

The stock markets generally have experienced, and will likely continue to experience, extreme price and volume fluctuations which have affected the market price of the shares of many small capital companies. These fluctuations have often been unrelated to the operating results of such companies. Such broad market fluctuations, as well as general economic and political conditions, may decrease the market price of our common stock in any market that may develop.

BECAUSE OUR STOCK IS A "PENNY STOCK" TRADING IN OUR STOCK MAY BE MORE EXPENSIVE AND MORE VOLATILE THAN TRADING IN HIGHER PRICED STOCKS, WHICH COULD RESULT IN YOU PAYING GREATER TRANSACTION COSTS AND REALIZING LESS GAIN, A LOSS OR EVEN NOTHING FROM YOUR INVESTMENT IN OUR SECURITIES. "Penny stocks" are generally defined as shares that trade at a price below $5.00 per share, other than securities registered on certain national securities exchanges or quoted on NASDAQ. While we intend to seek a listing for our common shares on a national trading system, such as the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board, we do not anticipate, at least initially, seeking listing on a national securities exchange or NASDAQ. Therefore, we anticipate that if we do obtain a listing for our common stock on an established trading system, our common shares will be deemed to be a penny stock. Broker-dealer practices in connection with transactions in penny stocks are regulated by certain penny stock rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission. These penny stock rules require a broker-dealer, prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from the rules, to deliver a standardized risk disclosure document that provides information about penny stocks and the nature of risks in the penny stock market. The broker-dealer also must provide the customer with current bid and offer quotations for the penny stock, the compensation of the broker-dealer and its salesperson in the transaction, and, if the broker-dealer is the sole market maker, the broker-dealer must disclose this fact and the broker-dealer's presumed control of the market, and monthly account statements showing the market value of each penny stock held in the customer's account. In addition, broker-dealers who sell these securities to persons other than established customers and "accredited investors" must make a special written determination that the penny stock is a suitable investment for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written agreement to the transaction. Consequently, these requirements may have the effect of reducing trading activity, if any, in the secondary market for a security subject to the penny stock rules, and investors in our common stock may find it difficult to sell their shares.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus contains forward-looking statements that are based on our current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about us and our industry. When used in this prospectus, the words "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "intends" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements under the captions "Risk Factors," "Use of Proceeds," "Plan of Operations," "Description of Business" and elsewhere in this prospectus.

These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. The cautionary statements made in this prospectus should be read as being applicable to all related forward-looking statements wherever they appear in this prospectus.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The following table sets forth our estimate of the allocation of net proceeds from this offering based on varying levels of funding that we deem to be key milestones to our operations. Actual expenditures may vary from these estimates. If we raise at least $1,375,000 we will seek to satisfy our outstanding debt obligations. If we raise at least $4,750,000, we intend to open four new showroom stores and one warehouse/hub facility in Florida. If we raise at least $10,250,000, we intend to open ten new showroom stores and two warehouse/hub facilities in Florida. If we raise at least $15,750,000, we intend to open ten new showroom stores, two warehouse/hub facilities in Florida and eight new showroom stores and one to two warehouse/hub facilities in Georgia. In the event we raise the full $20,000,000, in addition to the showroom stores and warehouse/hub facilities we plan to open if we raise at least $15,750,000, we may open additional stores in Florida and/or Georgia, and stores in North Carolina and/or South Carolina. Pending such uses, we will invest the net proceeds in investment-grade, short-term, interest bearing securities. The following order of the use of proceeds reflects the order of priority of each purpose.

- (1) At the present time, we intend to have our officers and directors offer and sell the shares included in this prospectus. Our officers and directors will not be paid any commission or finders' fee for shares they sell. We reserve the right, however, to retain licensed broker/dealers to assist us in the offer and sale of shares in this offering, if we deem such to be in our best interest. At this time we do not have any commitments, agreements or understandings with any broker/dealers, we have, however, designated maximum underwriting discounts, commissions and fees we are willing to pay to engage broker/dealers at 10% of the proceeds realized from the sale of shares sold by such broker/dealers. To the extent we do not incur commissions and finders' fees, funds set aside to pay such commissions and finders' fees will be applied to working capital.
- (2) The net proceeds of the offering designated to reduce debt will be applied to reduce current liabilities including accounts payable, accrued liabilities and long-term debt. The long-term debts to be reduced include the following:
- A secured note payable to a bank requiring monthly payments through April 2005, and bearing interest at a rate of 8.00%
 - A secured note payable to a bank requiring monthly payments through August 2006, and bearing interest at a rate of 5.84%;
 - An unsecured note payable to a shareholder requiring monthly payments through October 2008, and bearing interest at a rate of 10.00%;
 - A secured note payable to a bank requiring monthly payments through August 2013, and bearing interest at 6.00% per year; and
 - An unsecured note payable to an individual that is due on demand and bears interest at a rate of 6.00% per year.
- (3) The net proceeds of the offering remaining in working capital will be invested in short-term, interest bearing accounts and investments.

DETERMINATION OF OFFERING PRICE

As no underwriter has been retained to offer our securities, the offering price of our shares was not determined by negotiation with an underwriter as is customary in underwritten public offerings. Rather, we arbitrarily selected the offering price. There is no relationship between the offering price of the shares and our assets, earnings, book value, net worth or other economic or recognized criteria or future value of our shares.

11

DILUTION

As of the date of this offering, we had 38,428,700 common shares issued and outstanding and no preferred shares outstanding, and a net tangible book value of $(324,386) or $(0.01) per share. The proceeds from the sale of shares will vary depending on the total shares sold.

Investors in this offering will experience maximum potential dilution if we sell only one share. If we sell only one share offered herein there would be a total of 38,428,701 common shares outstanding. After deducting sales commissions/finders' fees and offering costs we would realize net expenses related to this offering of $224,998. Adding these expenses to our current net tangible book value, our total net tangible book value would be $(549,384). Dividing our net worth by the number of common shares outstanding discloses a per share book value of approximately $(0.01) per share. Therefore, if we sold only one share in this offering, the investor purchasing that share would suffer immediate dilution in the book value of that share of approximately $2.01 or approximately 101% and the present shareholders would realize no increase in the per share book value of their shares.

The following table illustrates the maximum potential dilution that may be experienced by investors in the offering:

If 10,000,000
shares sold

Offering price per share before deduction of offering expense	$ 2.00
Net tangible book value per share before the offering	$(0.01)
Net tangible book value per share after the offering	$(0.01)
Dilution to new investors per share	$ 2.01
Dilution to new investors as a percentage	101%

SELLING SECURITY HOLDERS

None of our existing shareholders is selling securities pursuant to this registration statement.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Currently we plan to have our officers and directors, Jimmy Lee, Michael Carroll and Steven Nichols sell the common shares on a self underwritten basis. They will receive no discounts or commissions. In the past, we have received unsolicited indications of interest in The Flooring Zone, Inc. from store clients, suppliers and other persons familiar with our business. These indications have been nothing more than verbal communications and we have no commitments, oral or written, from any party to purchase any of our shares. Our officers and directors will deliver prospectuses to these individuals and to others who they believe might have interest in purchasing all or a part of this offering. We also plan to offer these shares to our current shareholders, friends, family and personal and business acquaintances of our officers and directors. We anticipate the primary method our officers and directors will use to advertise this offering will be word of mouth to store clients, suppliers, vendors and others who are familiar with our business. At this time, we do not anticipate engaging in a media campaign to advertise this offering. At this time, we do not intend to retain an underwriter or licensed broker/dealers to assist us in the offer and sell of the shares. If, however, our officers and directors are unable to raise sufficient capital in the offering, we may seek to engage broker/dealers to assist us in the offer and sell of the shares. If we were to do so, we will file a post-effective amendment to this registration statement identifying such broker/dealers as underwriters prior to any offers or sales being made by such broker/dealers. We do not intend to offer the shares for sale via the internet. None of our officers or directors are registered broker-dealers and therefore will rely on the exemption provided in Rule 3a4-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to sell the shares.

To buy shares you must complete and execute the subscription agreement and return it to us at 3219 Glynn Avenue Brunswick, Georgia 31520. Payment of the purchase price may be made by check or money order payable to the order of "The Flooring Zone, Inc." There is no minimum offering and no escrow account has been established, therefore, all funds will be made available to The Flooring Zone, Inc. upon receipt.

We have the right to accept or reject subscriptions in whole or in part, for any reason or for no reason. All monies from rejected subscriptions will be returned immediately to the subscriber, without interest or deductions. Subscriptions for securities will be accepted or rejected within 48 hours after we receive them. This offering will commence with the date of this prospectus and will end 270 days from that date, unless terminated earlier by us. There will be no extensions of time in which to continue this offering.

There are no judgments against us or our officers or directors. None of our officers or directors has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor relating to securities or performance in corporate office.

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Retail Floorcovering Industry

The North American retail floorcovering industry is highly fragmented with approximately 15,000 individual floorcovering retail dealers operating 25,000 locations in North America according to FLOOR COVERING WEEKLY, a leading floorcovering industry publication. Our management believes that no single retailer accounts for more than a 5% market share of total annual industry revenues. The industry is characterized by a large number of small local and regional companies and a small number of national chains, such as The Home Depot, and organizations such as Carpet One and Carpet Max, which principally operate as buying groups offering their members economies of scale in the purchasing of floorcovering products.

History of the Flooring Zone

Early Development. Mr. Lee founded our subsidiary, The Flooring Zone of Georgia, Inc. in June of 2000. Based upon his experience working with retail carpet stores owned by his grandfather and father and his experience with a national floorcovering retail company, Mr. Lee developed a strategy for a full service floorcovering retail operation. Through our subsidiary we initiated our present strategy of providing low-cost product sourcing and advanced specialty retailing capabilities. We have focused on establishing relationships with the leading carpet suppliers to negotiate favorable purchasing terms. In addition, we seek to hire experienced retailing management personnel and developed product mix, distribution, merchandising, advertising, and promotion, sales training and store operations strategies and resources designed to increase store sales volume and profitability.

Most small independent floorcovering retailers face distinct competitive disadvantages and challenges, including limited purchasing power for products and services, lack of consumer product knowledge, and ineffective asset management, merchandising, selling and store-management techniques. We believe our network of three Company owned stores is larger than most other independent floorcovering retailers. We also believe that we are significantly smaller than the larger floorcovering retailers who may enjoy better economies of scale but often lose the personal touch delivered by smaller operations.

Our operating strategies are designed to capitalize on competitive advantages of the smaller retailer while developing and maintaining industry-leading buying power and implementing professional retailing operations.

Business Strategy

The principal elements of our business strategy are as follows:

Full-service Retail Formats. A central aspect of our business strategy is the development of a retail format that targets a specific segment of the floorcovering market. Our floorcovering stores offer customers a full range of floorcovering products directly and floorcovering services, including ordering, measuring, delivery and installation through third parties. Our stores typically offer discount floorcovering products held in inventory at the store. We have a small installation staff and can provide installation services. We also maintain strong relationships with several floorcovering installers who can provide installation services to our customers. By primarily outsourcing installation, management believes that we can effectively target both the customer primarily concerned with product selection, quality and customer service, and the customer primarily concerned with price.

Purchasing. We believe we are able to obtain competitive pricing, delivery terms and merchandising programs by leveraging the purchasing power of our retail network and by maintaining close relationships with floorcovering manufacturers.

Professional Retail Management Capabilities. We have invested substantial financial and management resources into the development of information systems, services and infrastructure to support our retail floorcovering network. We are committed to making shopping for floorcovering products a pleasant experience through the employment of well-trained, knowledgeable and courteous sales associates. We plan to continue to invest in information systems and use current technology to improve the operating efficiency of our business.

Centralized Distribution and Limited Inventory Levels. We attempt to minimize our store-level inventories by utilizing our primary distribution center in Brunswick, Georgia. As we grow, we plan to use regional warehouse facilities on a limited basis to receive shipments and to stock high volume items. As a result, our retail stores will maintain limited amounts of inventory, consisting primarily of product samples and enough inventory to support the cash-and-carry customer. In addition, a distribution center or hub allows us to purchase and inventory "specials," or seasonal overruns.

Multiple Product Categories. We offer a full range of floorcovering products, including broadloom carpets, area rugs, hardwood floorings, ceramic tiles and vinyl floorings, available in both private and branded labels. Multiple product categories allow us to respond to changes in consumer demand. Our focus on multiple floorcovering products results in decreased carpet sales as a percentage of total retail sales.

Growth Strategy. Our growth strategy is to develop the leading retail floorcovering network in North America. We intend to continue our growth strategy initially throughout the southeastern United States in the areas surrounding our current network. The principal elements of our growth strategy include (i) opening additional company-owned stores, (ii) broadening our products and services, and (iii) making selective acquisitions.

Opening of New Stores. We intend to initially expand within our existing markets or into contiguous new markets and attempt to continue to cluster our stores within a market in order to achieve management and operating efficiencies and to enhance our name recognition. We believe, however, that we can also establish company-owned stores in new markets due to our effective strategies in generating customer traffic.

We intend to open new stores in Class A strip shopping retail space and we have developed several standardized store formats ranging from 6,500 to 10,000 square feet to accelerate store openings and minimize store opening costs. The interior store designs include pre-determined product mixes, fixtures and equipment, signage, and point-of-sale advertising and promotional programs. Once a new store site is identified, we will stage the products, merchandising systems and personnel for the new store in our distribution center and headquarters. We believe that we can open a Flooring Zone store within 45 to 90 days of executing a lease, with expected total capital expenditures, initial inventory investments and pre-opening expenses ranging from $75,000 to $150,000 per store. We do not currently intend to offer our stores as franchises.

Broadening of Products and Services. We are developing additional services relating to product installation, maintenance and in-store credit, among others. These additional services, if fully developed, will be utilized by retail operations to increase sales and profitability.

Making Selective Acquisitions. We intend to search for existing floorcovering retail stores that would strengthen our distribution capabilities, that can be reasonably converted into Flooring Zone stores, and that are able to be acquired at or below what we believe our costs would be to open a new store and generate customer traffic.

Company Operations

We provide our retail floorcovering stores with products, services and trained personnel that we believe generally are unavailable to many independent floorcovering retailers and would be cost prohibitive for most independent dealers to develop. Our resources include merchandising, purchasing and distribution, advertising and promotion, management and sales training and management information systems, as described below.

Purchasing and Distribution. Due to the floorcovering purchasing volume of our retail network and our relationships with floorcovering suppliers, management believes that we obtain high-quality products and services at competitive costs. A substantial portion of the floorcovering products purchased by or through our Company are shipped directly by the supplier to our individual retail stores or to our distribution hub. Our stores generally maintain minimal inventory, which predominantly consists of product samples. Our distribution center or hub allows us to make opportunistic purchases from carpet mills at substantially discounted prices. We are also able to offer special purchases to customers, including purchases of mill drops (discontinued lines) and excess mill inventory which are occasionally made available to us at discounted prices. We also make available on an ongoing basis remnant packages and short roll packages which can be as small as 10 and as large as 1,000 remnants at a time. Our ability to purchase and inventory private-label products and specials creates the opportunity for increased revenues and margins and lower pricing to the customer. We have relationships with many vendors within the industry. While we have preferred vendors from whom we purchase a majority of our products, because of our numerous relationships within the industry, we do not believe that we are dependent upon any one vendor for product purchases. Nor do we believe that the loss of any single vendor would have a long-term material adverse effect on our operating results or financial position.

Product Mix and Merchandising. We offer a full range of floorcovering products from key suppliers, including Shaw, Mohawk Industries, Beaulieu of America, DuPont and AlliedSignal for proprietary carpet fiber, Armstrong World Industries and Congoleum for vinyl flooring, Bruce Hardwood Floors (a division of Triangle Pacific) for hardwood flooring and Dal-Tile for ceramic tile. Each of these suppliers is a leader in its respective floorcovering category. Our suppliers also include niche carpet, vinyl, hardwood and ceramic tile producers, as well as leading manufacturers and importers of room-size area rugs.

Our merchandising strategies address effective store layout, fixtures, signage, product mix, and cross-selling techniques designed to increase sales closing performance, average transaction size, sales per square foot of retail space, and gross margins. Store interiors provide easy-to-locate presentation of floorcovering samples, organized by product line, in an attractive and brightly lit interior. In addition, we provide conference rooms where contractors and interior designers can meet with their clients to discuss flooring options.

Advertising and Promotion. We believe advertising and promotion are important to our success. Therefore, we budget a percentage of revenues per market for multimedia advertising campaigns. These campaigns will include radio, billboard, print, direct mail and television promotions. To promote our products we also offer our low price guarantee - If you find a local competitor selling your new first quality carpet for less money we will double the difference. We also hold one day "Private Sales" events at each of our retail stores twice a year. Our Private Sales events are conducted by direct mail invitation with coordinated manufacturer's participation.

Management and Sales Training. Our training program focuses on developing professional sales and leadership skills and team building concepts. Our training methodology incorporates a turnkey training and diagnostics system that provides our retail stores with competent and skilled professional personnel.

In addition, our management has ongoing training to keep our employees informed about the latest floorcovering information such as new technology, new products, merchandising, available specials and design trends.

Management Information Systems. Our stores utilize a point-of-sale software system for tracking consumer demographics and purchasing patterns and other data to integrate all store operations into a central information system we spent the last three years developing in-house.

Credit. Through a national bank we offer consumer credit packages to our retail network.

Store Operations

Retail Operations. We have and intend to continue to open and operate floorcovering stores in markets that we believe have the potential for above-average growth in floorcovering sales. Our stores generate revenues through sales of floorcovering products to consumers and other customers. Each store carries the full product mix available to our Company including several leading brand names. New stores average 6,500 -10,000 square feet, are typically located in Class A strip shopping retail space in suburban locations, and are staffed with two to six personnel. These stores cater primarily to consumers seeking a variety of high-quality products and customer service. Consumers make purchase selections from floor samples, and the order is usually delivered from our local warehouse or hub, or direct from the manufacturer. We maintain some internal installation staff and have established relationships with several local contractors and usually subcontract installation. Our stores are supported by the full range of services provided by manufacturers, including merchandising and sales promotion programs, high quality advertising, our own integrated information systems, and professionally trained management and sales personnel. Our customers include homeowners, designers, homebuilders and commercial contractors. We are not dependent on one or a few major customers. Our stores compete with other independent retailers, industry franchisees and a small number of national chains, including The Home Depot.

We believe that the Flooring Zone concept utilized in our stores is visually appealing and provides an enjoyable shopping experience for our customers. Our stores standardized layout is professionally designed to include eye-catching signage, bright lighting, a conferencing area and departmentalized product displays. Our stores use floor samples to display the full range of our available products, with separate areas dedicated to carpet, area rugs, hardwood flooring, vinyl flooring and ceramic tiles.

Competition

Through our retail stores we compete with other floorcovering retailers in their respective local market areas. According to FLOOR COVERING WEEKLY, the North American market consists of approximately 15,000 individual floorcovering retailers, which represent 25,000 locations. Competition in the retail floorcovering market is intense due to the significant number of retailers in operation. In addition, large retailers have entered the market and provide significant competition, including Home Depot, Inc.

Trademarks, Service Marks, Trade Names and Commercial Symbols

We have registered marks with the U.S. Trademark Office including: "The Flooring Zone" and "Save A Comma." At this time, we know of no infringing uses that could materially affect the use of our service marks, logos or slogans in any state in which stores are or are proposed to be located. We are not the owner or licensee of any patents or copyrights.

Employees

As of the date of this prospectus we employ approximately 12 persons on a full-time basis, including approximately 6 persons at our retail operations and 6 persons at our corporate offices. No employee is a party to any collective bargaining agreement.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

This discussion summarizes the significant factors affecting our consolidated operating results, financial condition, liquidity and capital resources during our fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, and for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2004. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and financial statement footnotes included in this registration statement.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements of our expectations contained herein, including, but not limited to statements regarding sales growth, new stores, increases in comparable store sales, commodity price inflation and deflation, and capital expenditures constitute "forward-looking statements." Such statements are based on currently available operating, financial and competitive information and are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from our historical experience and our present expectations. These risks and uncertainties include but are not limited to, fluctuations in and the overall condition of the U.S. economy, stability of costs and availability of sourcing channels, conditions affecting new store development, our ability to implement new technologies and processes, our ability to attract, train, and retain highly-qualified associates, unanticipated weather conditions and the impact of competition and regulatory and litigation matters. Undue reliance should not be placed on such forward-looking statements, as such statements speak only as of the date on which they are made.

Results of Operations

Despite our expectation that we would realize an operating profit in fiscal 2003 as a result of having all three of our Company-owned store locations open for all of fiscal 2003, compared to two stores for all of fiscal 2002 and a third store for part of fiscal 2002, we realized a slightly increased net loss from operations in fiscal 2003. Based on our results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004, as compared to the comparable periods of 2003, we believe we will enjoy increased revenues and realize an operating profit in 2004.

Revenues

We generate revenue primarily from the sale of flooring products. We sell flooring products to two groups - retail customers and contractors. Retail customers generally pay higher prices for products than contractors. Typically, about 70% of our product sales are to retail customers and 30% of our product sales are to contractors. An exception to this general rule occurred during the third quarter of 2004, when as a result of the unusually active hurricane season, retail customer sales accounted for only 40% of total product sales. As a result, even though sales volume has increased 15% during the nine months ended September 30, 2004, and we raised retail product prices an average of 2% in January 2004, we have realized an increase in net revenue of only 12% during the nine months ended September 30, 2004 as compared to September 30, 2003. Based on fourth quarter results to date, it appears that the percentage of products sold to retail customers and contractors has returned to more traditional levels. Therefore, we expect increases in net revenue during the fourth quarter of 2004 to be much closer to the 15% we experienced during the first and second quarters of 2004, than the 7% we experienced in the third quarter of 2004.

In the three months ended September 30, 2004, we realized net revenue of $922,271, a 7% increase compared to the three months ended September 30, 2003. For the nine months ended September 30, 2004, we realized net revenue of $2,938,253 compared to $2,619,985, a 12% increase over the same period ended September 30, 2003. We believe the increase in net revenue during the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2004, compared to the same periods of 2003, is attributable to improving economies and consumer confidence in the communities where we operate.

In fiscal 2002, we realized our highest yearly revenue. We had experienced significant product sales and revenue growth each fiscal year until fiscal 2003. Despite the fact that our second and third stores were open for the full 2003 fiscal year, revenue from product sales fell in fiscal 2003 by $32,694, to $3,396,107 as compared to fiscal 2002, a decrease of about 1%. This decrease corresponds with a decrease in product sales volume of about 1%, while average retail product sales price remained constant. Licensing fees earned from the licensing of our name during fiscal 2003 was $978 compared to $20,413 during fiscal 2002. These decreases in sales revenue and licensing fees combined to result in a reduction in net revenues in fiscal 2003 of $52,129, or 1.5%. We believe the reduction in revenues we experienced in fiscal 2003 as compared to fiscal 2002, was the result of various economic factors that contributed to a reduction in consumer confidence in the region in which we operate.

As noted above, our revenues are affected by the consumer confidence. Based on sales in the fourth quarter of 2004, we believe consumer confidence in the communities where we operate is strong. We anticipate revenues at our current stores to remain constant or even slightly higher in 2005. We anticipate that our planned expansion into more and larger markets will increase product sales and revenue from operations. We believe the revenues we can earn from one store in the large markets we are targeting will be equivalent to the revenue we earn in the three stores we currently have.

Gross Profits

Our gross profits are directly affected by our costs of sales. Cost of sales includes all direct costs of floor coverings, materials used in installation and installation labor. As with revenues, our cost of sales and gross profits are directly affected by changes in the percentage of products sold to retail customers versus contractors. As discussed above, the prices we can charge contractors are lower than the prices we can charge retail customers, therefore, our profit margin on product sales to retail customers is greater. Moreover, we typically also realize profit from the sale of materials used in installation and from the costs charged for installation labor to retail customers. Conversely, contractors typically use their own subcontractors to install the floor covering products they purchase. These subcontractors provide the materials used in installation and the installation labor.

In fiscal 2003, our cost of sales margins were essentially unchanged as compared to fiscal 2002 and we realized an $8,167 increase in gross profit in fiscal 2003.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2004, our gross profit was $1,066,987 or 25% greater than the comparable nine month period of 2003. During the three months ended September 30, 2004, our gross profit was $278,030 or 7% lower than in the comparable three month period of 2003. This reduction in gross profit in the third quarter of 2004, is a direct result of decreased sales to retail customers as a percentage of total sales due to the hurricanes experienced during the third quarter 2004, as discussed above. Based on fourth quarter results, it appears that the percentage of sales to retail customers has returned to more traditional levels. We believe increases in gross profit in the fourth quarter of 2004 will more closely approximate the 25% experienced during the nine months ended September 30, 2004.

We believe the improvement in our cost of sales margin experienced during the nine months ended September 30, 2004, is the result of several factors. First, as discussed above, in January 2004, we increased average retail product price by 2%. This has resulted in a 5% increase in gross profit on retail products sales. Second, we negotiated lower rates with our installers. This has resulted in an overall cost saving of between 5% and 10% on the cost we pay to have products installed for our customers. Finally, during 2004, we have begun to purchase product in larger quantities. This has resulted in a 10% reduction in the costs we pay to purchase the flooring covering products we sell.

While our gross profit margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, is higher than the same period of the prior year, our gross profit margin has steadily declined each quarter of 2004. We do not, however, believe this represents a trend. Instead, we believe the reduction in gross profit margin in the third quarter was a result of the unusually active hurricane season, rather than an ongoing decrease in net revenues or increasing costs of sales. Moreover, based on the results of operations during the fourth quarter of 2004, we anticipate gross profit margins to increase in the fourth quarter of 2004 compared to the third quarter of 2004.

We have and will continue to seek to build alliances with major vendors in the floor covering industry. We believe these relationships and our strategic purchasing methods have contributed to improving margins. We also expect our cost of sales margins to improve as we increase the utilization of in-house installation labor.

General and Administrative Expenses

For the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

General and administrative expenses increased $334,665, or 30% to $1.43 million in fiscal 2003, and as a percentage of sales revenue increased from 32%

26

in fiscal 2002 to 42% in fiscal 2003. These increases are due to expenses we have incurred in hiring and training staff, at various levels, to expand into larger markets in southeast Georgia and northern Florida; purchase and implementation of our computer system with sales and inventory systems capable of operating a large floor covering company, and increases in accounting and legal expenses as a result of this offering. Because of delays in plans to expand to new locations, our general and administrative expenses in 2003 were not offset by increases in sales and revenue generated by the opening of additional stores. In fiscal 2003 and 2002, general and administrative costs consisted of:

	2003	2002
	----	----
Salaries & benefits costs	$ 661,795	$ 513,209
Advertising & display costs	139,516	158,173
Occupancy costs & utilities	309,926	213,879
Legal & accounting costs	67,006	16,773
Other	255,792	197,336
	-----	-----
	$ 1,434,035	$ 1,099,370

We have experienced increases in salaries in each of the past two fiscal years. With the completion of our management information system, during the first quarter of 2004, we reduced our staff. We do not anticipate significant increases in staffing needs until we have raised sufficient capital to expand our operations.

In fiscal 2003, we reduced our advertising & display costs because we believe we are well known within our current markets. We anticipate continued reductions in advertising costs until we expand to new markets.

Occupancy costs & utilities in fiscal 2003 increased primarily as a result of our expansion from two stores to three. We expect these costs to remain constant until we expand our operations.

As discussed above, the significant increase in legal and accounting costs in 2003, is the result of our efforts to undertake this offering.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003

General and administrative expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, decreased $10,076, or 1% to $1,005,615 compared to the same nine month period of fiscal 2003, and as a percentage of sales revenue decreased from 39% during the nine months ended September 30, 2003 to 34% during the nine months ended September 30, 2004. During the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, general and administrative costs consisted of:

27

	Nine months ended

	September 30, 2004	September 30, 2003

Salaries & benefits costs	$ 463,073	$ 497,336

The reduction in salaries and benefits costs in the nine months ended September 30, 2004, compared to 2003, is largely the result of a reduction in our administrative work force with the completion of our management information system and the consolidation of certain job functions, during the first quarter of 2004. We do not anticipate significant increases in staffing needs until we have raised sufficient capital to expand our operations.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2004, we reduced our advertising and display costs by 19% compared to the same period of 2003 because we believe we are well known within our current markets. We anticipate continued reductions in advertising costs until we expand to new markets.

Occupancy costs and utilities during the nine months ended September 30, 2004, compared to the same period of 2003, remained relatively flat, decreasing by less than 3%. We expect these costs to remain constant until we expand our operations.

Similarly, legal and accounting costs remained relatively flat, increasing by less than 4% during the nine months ended September 30, 2004 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2003. We anticipate legal and accounting costs will continue to increase as a result of our efforts to undertake this offering and in connection with the ongoing public reporting obligations we will assume in connection with this offering.

Other costs increased 31% to $201,256 during the nine months ended September 30, 2004 compared to the comparable period of 2003. This increase is primarily attributable to a $25,000 increase in postage and office costs associated with increasing our operations, an $12,000 increase in travel costs as a result of increasing the number of flooring product shows we attend and traveling to scout out potential locations for expansion, and an $8,000 increase in automobile expenses associated with increasing the number of employees we reimburse for automobile expenses. We anticipate increases in other expenses to remain constant through the fourth quarter 2004 and until we expand and add additional company owned stores to our network.

For the three months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003

General and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2004, decreased $65,614, or 18% to $306,877 compared to the same three month period of fiscal 2003, and as a percentage of sales revenue decreased from 43% during the three months ended September 30, 2003 to 33% during the three months ended September 30, 2004. During the three months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, general and administrative costs consisted of:

28

	Three months ended
	September 30, 2004	September 30, 2003
	-----	-----
Salaries & benefits costs	$ 151,994	$ 168,617
Advertising & display costs	12,568	26,442
Occupancy costs & utilities	76,738	91,966
Legal & accounting costs	5,869	27,350
Other	59,708	58,116
	-----	-----
	$ 306,877	$ 372,491

As discussed above, the reduction in salaries and benefits costs in the three months ended September 30, 2004, compared to 2003, is largely the result of a reduction in our administrative work force and the consolidation of certain job functions. We do not anticipate significant increases in staffing needs until we have raised sufficient capital to expand our operations.

During the three months ended September 30, 2004, we continued to reduce our advertising & display costs. We reduced our advertising and display costs from $26,442 during the three months ended September 30, 2003 to $12,568 during the three months ended September 30, 2004. We do not anticipate significant increases in advertising and display costs until we expand to new markets.

Occupancy costs and utilities during the three months ended September 30, 2004, were $76,738 compared to $91,966 for the same period of 2003. We expect these costs to continue to remain relatively constant until we expand our operations.

Legal and accounting costs for the three months ended September 30, 2004, were $5,869 compared to $27,350 during the three months ended September 30, 2003. We believe this decrease in legal and accounting costs in the third quarter of 2004, is as much the result of timing and billing cycles by our attorneys and accountants, as it is indicative of a material decrease in our legal and accounting costs. We anticipate legal & accounting costs in the future will more closely approximate the costs we incurred in the three months ended September 30, 2003, than 2004, as we continue our efforts to pursue this offering and begin to comply with the ongoing public reporting obligations we will assume as a result of this offering.

Other costs remained relatively flat, increasing less than 3% in the three months ended September 30, 2004 compared to 2003.

Net Loss

Our net loss in fiscal 2003 increased $340,361, to $467,460, compared to fiscal 2002. As discussed above, this increase in net loss was primarily the result of reduced product sales in 2003. During the three months ended September 30, 2004, we realized a net loss of $28,847, a reduction in net loss of $43,587 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2003. During the nine months ended September 30, 2004, we have realized net income of $15,635 compared to a net loss of $199,892 for the nine months ended September 30, 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our capital resources have consisted of revenues from operations, funds raised through the sale of our common stock and debt. We anticipate our capital resources in the upcoming twelve months will likewise consist primarily of revenues from operations, funds raised in financing activities and debt.

During fiscal 2002 and 2003 and the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2004, cash was primarily used to fund operations. See below for additional discussion and analysis of cash flow.

<TABLE>

	Fiscal 2003	Fiscal 2002	9/30/2004	9/30/2003

Net cash provided by financing activities		374,397	283,696	192,144	316,603
NET INCREASE IN CASH		$ 7,340	$ 47,674	$ 16,481	$ 38,571

Net cash used in operating activities increased $252,619 in fiscal 2003 compared to fiscal 2002. As discussed above, revenue from product sales and licensing fees was 1.5% lower in fiscal 2003 compared to fiscal 2002. Also, in 2003 general and administrative expenses increased 23% compared to 2002 as we spent significant funds in 2003 developing infrastructure and a new computer system that could support our planned expanded operations. This reduction in revenue coupled with the increase in general and administrative expenses combined to result in a 268% increase in net loss. Because of the slow down in product sales, accounts receivable decreased 91% in 2003 compared to 2002. During 2003, we used cash flow from operations to reduce our accounts payable by 120%. These reductions to our cash used in operating activities were only partially offset by a 146% decrease in inventory, which we allowed to happen to insure we would have sufficient cash to meet our needs in 2003. These factors contributed to a $252,619 or 337% increase in cash used from operations in 2003 compared to 2002.

By comparison, as discussed herein, during the first nine months of 2004 compared to the same period 2003, product sales have increased and general and administrative expenses have decreased leading to a change from a net loss of $199,892 during the nine months ended September 30, 2003, to net income of $15,635 in the nine months ended September 30, 2004. During the first nine months of 2004, as product sales have improved, inventory has increased $94,521 or about 300% compared to the nine months ended September 20, 2003. Similarly, as a result of increased product sales our accounts receivable increased by $38,431 to $160,893, during the nine months ended September 30, 2004, compared to the same period ended September 30, 2003. Customer deposits for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, decreased $116,218. This decrease in customer deposits is attributable to the decrease in retail sales we experienced during the end of August and throughout September as a result of the hurricane season.

At the time we sell product to our retail customers we require a deposit. Once the job is completed we recognize the revenue from the sale. Most retail jobs are completed within 30-60 days. The decrease in customer deposits reflects the drop in retail sales caused by the hurricanes. Net cash used in operating activities decreased $74,568 or 30% for the first nine months of 2004 compared to the first nine months of 2003. This increase in cash used in operating activities during the nine month period ended September 30, 2004, was largely the result of net income of $15,635 compared to a net loss of $199,892, partially offset by an increase in inventory and a decrease in customer deposits.

Net cash used in investing activities decreased in fiscal 2003 by $121,584 compared to fiscal 2002. During 2002, we incurred significant costs in opening new stores in St. Marys, Georgia and Yulee, Florida. In 2003, we opened no new stores and incurred no comparable expenses. Cash used in investing activities decreased $27,801 in the nine months ended September 30, 2004, compared to the same period 2003. In 2003, we upgraded our computer hardware and infrastructure to accommodate our plans for expanded operations.

Net cash provided from financing activities increased $90,701 in fiscal 2003 compared to fiscal 2002. In fiscal 2003, the funds we raised through financing activities were primarily obtained from a line of credit provided by a related party, and the sale of our securities. In 2002, the funds we obtained through financing activities were the result of borrowing funds. During the nine months ended September 30, 2004, proceeds from a long term loan and issuance of stock totaled $657,500. This amount was only partially offset by the repayment of the credit line from a related party in the amount of $124,000 and payments on long term debt totaling $341,356, resulting in net cash from financing activities of $192,144. By comparison, in the nine months ended September 30, 2003, net cash from financing activities totaled $316,603. Those funds came from a related party credit line, long term loans and the issuance of stock totaling $401,183. Because of the slow down in our operations during the nine months ended September 30, 2003, and our desire to have sufficient cash flows to meet our needs, we used only $84,580 of the funds from financing activities to reduce debts.

At December 31, 2003 and September 30, 2004, we had cash on hand of $55,014 and $71,495, respectively.

(1) On August 2, 2004, we paid the line of credit in full.

(2) On August 2, 2004, we consolidated the note payable to the related party and our long term debt by obtaining a loan from a bank. The new loan is in the amount of $550,000, bears interest at a rate of 6.6%, requires monthly installment payments of $6,270 and matures in August 2014.

Off-Balance Sheet Financing Arrangements

As of December 31, 2003, and September 30, 2004, we had no off-balance sheet financing arrangements.

Critical Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

We recognize revenues in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) number 104, "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements." SAB 104 clarifies application of U. S. generally accepted accounting principles to revenue transactions. Accordingly, revenue is recognized when an order has been received, the price is fixed and determinable, the order is shipped and installed, collection is reasonably assured and we have no significant obligations remaining. Licensing fees are royalties paid to us for licensing the use of the name The Flooring Zone. The royalties range from 1-2% of the licensee's commercial sales volume.

We record accounts receivable for sales which have been delivered but for which money has not been collected. An allowance for doubtful accounts is provided for accounts deemed potentially uncollectible based on analysis and aging of accounts. For customer purchases or deposits paid in advance, we record a liability until products are shipped or installed.

Merchandise Inventory

We record inventory at the lower of cost or market, cost being determined on a first-in, first-out method. We do not believe our merchandise inventories are subject to significant risk of obsolescence in the near-term, and we have the ability to adjust purchasing practices based on anticipated sales trends and general economic conditions.

Vendor Funds

We receive funds from vendors in the normal course of business for purchase-volume-related rebates. Our accounting treatment for these vendor-provided funds is consistent with Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) 02-16 "Accounting by a Customer (Including a Reseller) for Certain Consideration Received From a Vendor." Under EITF 02-16, purchase volume rebates should be treated as a reduction of inventory cost, unless they represent a reimbursement of specific, incremental and identifiable costs incurred by the customer to sell the vendor's product. The purchase volume rebates that we receive do not meet the specific, incremental and identifiable criteria in EITF 02-16. Therefore, they are treated as a reduction in the cost of inventory and we recognize these funds as a reduction of cost of sales when the inventory is sold.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Interpretation (FIN) No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (VIEs), in an effort to expand upon and strengthen existing accounting guidance that addresses when a company should include in its financial statements the assets, liabilities and activities of another entity. In general, a VIE is a corporation, partnership, trust, or any other legal structure used for business purposes that either (a) does not have equity investors with voting rights or (b) has equity investors that do not provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support its activities. FIN 46 requires a VIE to be consolidated by a company if that company is subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the VIE's activities, is entitled to receive a majority of the VIE's residual returns, or both. FIN 46 also requires disclosures about VIEs that the Company is not required to consolidate, but in which it has a significant variable interest. The consolidation requirements of FIN 46 apply immediately to VIEs created after January 31, 2003, and to other entities no later than the three months ended September 30, 2003. Certain disclosure requirements are required in all financial statements issued after January 31, 2003, regardless of when the VIE was established. The Company has not identified any VIEs that must be consolidated.

On April 30, 2003 -- The FASB issued Statement No. 149, Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. The Statement amends and clarifies accounting for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities under Statement 133. The amendments set forth in SFAS No. 149 require that contracts with comparable characteristics be accounted for similarly. SFAS No. 149 is generally effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003 (with a few exceptions) and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. The guidance is to be applied prospectively only. The adoption of this pronouncement had no effect on the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company.

On May 15, 2003 -- The FASB issued Statement No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. The Statement improves the accounting for certain financial instruments that, under previous guidance, issuers could account for as equity. It also establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures on its balance sheet certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances) because that financial instrument embodies an obligation of the issuer. SFAS No. 150 was effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and was otherwise effective for us as of July 1, 2003. The adoption of the applicable provisions of this statement as of the indicated dates has had no effect on the Company's financial statements.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

Our principal executive offices are located in leased office space located at 3219 Glynn Avenue, Brunswick, Georgia 31520. We also lease warehouse space and space for our four retail stores in Georgia and Florida. We believe these spaces will be adequate for our needs through the terms of their existing leases, the first of which expires in 2007 and the last of which expires in 2014. Based on leases currently have in place, our minimum required annual lease payments for these locations through December 31, 2004, is $186,790 and will be $189,310 for the year ending December 31, 2005.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

During the past two years, we have issued shares to the following officers, directors, promoters and beneficial owners of more than 5% of our outstanding securities.

Name	Number of Shares	Consideration Given	Relationship to Issuer
Jimmy Lee	19,000,000	Services	CEO/President/Director *
Michael Carroll	19,000,000	Services	Secretary/Treasurer/Director*
Steven Nichols	1,000	Cash	Vice President

* Holder of 5% or more of our outstanding securities.

On May 13, 2003, Jimmy Lee, our president and director and Michael Carroll, our secretary/treasurer and director each gave 62,500 common shares of their personal shareholdings to satisfy debt of the Company in the amount of $61,609. Mr. Lee and Mr. Carroll received no consideration from the Company in connection with this transaction.

In October 2003, we entered into an agreement with Mr. Carroll, whereby he agreed to extend a line of credit to the Company. The interest rate on the line of credit is 6%. This line of credit was paid in full by the Company on August 2, 2004.

In August 2000, Mr. Carroll loaned Flooring Zone of Georgia, Inc., $275,000 pursuant to an unsecured note payable. This note bears interest at a rate of 10% per year. Under the terms of the note, we are required to make monthly installment payments of $4,565.33 through October 2008. As of September 30, 2004, the outstanding balance on this note was $192,012.

We believe that each of the above-described transactions was negotiated on terms at least as favorable to us as those available to us on an arms-length. As with the above transactions, all future material transactions entered into with related parties shall be on terms no less favorable to us than we can obtain from an unaffiliated third party on an arms-length basis and will be approved by a majority of our disinterested directors.

MARKET FOR COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

At present, our securities are not traded publicly. There is no assurance that a trading market will develop, or, if developed, that it will be sustained. A purchaser of shares may, therefore, find it difficult to resell the securities offered herein should he or she desire to do so when eligible for public resales. Furthermore, the shares are not marginable and it is unlikely that a lending institution would accept our common stock as collateral for a loan.

Pursuant to this registration statement, we propose to publicly offer 10,000,000 common shares. To date, none of our outstanding shares of common stock are subject to outstanding options or warrants to purchase our common stock. We currently have approximately 60 shareholders.

Of our 38,428,700 common shares currently outstanding, 38,352,700 shares have been held for more than one year and would be eligible for resale in compliance with the provisions of Rule 144.

The Flooring Zone, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2003

Note 1 ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization-The Flooring Zone, Inc. (the "Company") is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada on May 5, 2003. On May 13, 2003 pursuant to a Share Exchange Agreement, the Company acquired all of the outstanding common stock of The Flooring Zone of Georgia, Inc (the "Georgia Company"), a Georgia Corporation, in exchange for 38,125,000 shares of common stock of the Company. The company's business operations provide for full-service retail floor covering products and services.

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The following summarizes the more significant of such policies:

Principles of Consolidation-The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of The Flooring Zone, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, The Flooring Zone of Georgia, Inc. All significant intercompany balances and transactions are eliminated.

Revenue Recognition- The Company recognizes revenue according to Staff Accounting Bulletin 101, Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements which clarifies U.S. Generally accepted accounting principles for revenue transactions. Accordingly, revenue is recognized when an order has been received, the price is fixed and determinable, the order is shipped and installed, collection is reasonably assured and the Company has no significant obligations remaining. Licensing fees are royalties paid to the Company for licensing the use of the name The Flooring Zone. The royalties range from 1-2% of the licensee's commercial sales volume.

Use of Estimates in Preparation of Financial Statements- The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents- The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities at the date of purchase of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Bad debt and allowance for doubtful accounts- The allowance for doubtful accounts is maintained at a level sufficient to provide for estimated credit losses based on evaluating known and inherent risks in the receivables portfolio. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts which, based upon management's evaluation of numerous factors, including economic conditions, a predictive analysis of the outcome of the current portfolio and prior credit loss experience, is deemed adequate to cover reasonably expected losses inherent in outstanding receivables.

Concentrations of credit risk- Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of trade receivables. The Company provides credit to its customers in the normal course of business, and accordingly performs ongoing credit evaluations and maintains allowances for potential credit losses. Concentrations of credit with respect to trade receivables are limited due to the Company requiring a deposit from customers.

Inventory - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, cost being determined on a first-in, first-out method.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. The following is a summary of the estimated useful lives and depreciation methods used in computing depreciation expense:

Asset	Depreciation Method	Estimated useful life
Equipment	Straight-line	5-10 years
Furniture and fixtures	Straight-line	10-15 years
Vehicles	Straight-line	10 years
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line	10 years
Displays	Replacement	N/A

Intangible Assets- Intangible assets include trademarks that have been registered with the United States Patent and Trademarks office. The costs of obtaining trademarks are capitalized as incurred and are amortized over their estimated useful lives of ten years using the straight-line method. Amortization expense for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 were $323 and $316, respectively.

Income Taxes - In July 2000 the Company elected to be taxed as an S Corporation under the Internal Revenue Service Code. Accordingly, under such an election, the Company's taxable income was reported by the individual shareholders. In 2003 the Company cancelled its election to be taxed as an S Corporation and therefore applies the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards("SFAS") No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes which requires an asset and liability approach for financial accounting and reporting for income taxes, and the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and tax basis of the Company's assets and liabilities at enacted tax rates expected to be in effect when such amounts are realized or settled.

Net Loss Per Common In accordance with SFAS No. 128, "Earnings Per Share," basic loss per common share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is computed using weighted average number of common shares plus dilutive common share equivalents outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method. At December 31, 2003 there are no common stock equivalents outstanding, thus, basic and diluted loss per share calculations are the same.

Stock based compensation - SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" allows companies to choose whether to account for employee stock-based compensation on a fair-value method, or to account for such compensation under the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"). The Company has chosen to account for stock-based compensation using APB 25. If the compensation cost for the Company's compensation plan had been determined consistent with SFAS No. 123 the Company's net income and net income per common share would have changed to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

PART II INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The statutes, charter provisions, bylaws, contracts or other arrangements under which controlling persons, directors or officers of the registrant are insured or indemnified in any manner against any liability which they may incur in such capacity are as follows:

(a) Section 78.751 of the Nevada Business Corporation Act provides that each corporation shall have the following powers:

1. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction, determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

3. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he must be indemnified by the corporation against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense.

4. Any indemnification under subsections 1 and 2, unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to subsection 5, must be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made:

(a) By the stockholders;

(b) By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the act, suit or proceeding;

(c) If a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the act, suit or proceeding so orders, by independent legal counsel, in a written opinion; or

(d) If a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the act, suit or proceeding cannot be obtained, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

5. The certificate or articles of incorporation, the bylaws or an agreement made by the corporation may provide that the expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the corporation as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The provisions of this subsection do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which corporate personnel other than directors or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise by law.

6. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to this section:

(a) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the certificate or articles of incorporation or any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders of disinterested directors or otherwise, for either an action in his official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to subsection 2 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to subsection 5, may not be made to or on behalf of any director or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action.

(b) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

7. The registrant's Articles of Incorporation limit liability of its Officers and Directors to the full extent permitted by the Nevada Business Corporation Act.

UNDERTAKINGS

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of The Flooring Zone, Inc. pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of The Flooring Zone, Inc. in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

We hereby undertake to:

(1) File, during any period in which it offers or sells securities, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to:

(i) Include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) Reflect in the prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) Include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution.

(2) For determining liability under the Securities Act treat each post-effective amendment as a new registration statement of the securities offered, and the offering of the securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering.

(3) File a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

Re: The Flooring Zone, Inc.
Form SB-2 originally filed on September 24, 2004
File No.: 333-119234

Dear Ms. Long:

We appreciate your prompt review and response to our Amendment number 2, filed December 23, 2004. At the request of the management of The Flooring Zone, Inc., we are responding to comments raised by you and your staff at the Securities and Exchange Commission in your letter dated January 14, 2005. Following are the responses to your comments and explanations as to why other changes were made in the filing. As you will see, changes have been marked for your convenience.

Registration Statement cover page

1. The amount shown in Part II "Other Expenses of Issuance and Distribution" has been revised to show the correct amount of the registration fee paid, which was $2,534. (As shown on the cover page.) (See page 61.) As per my conversation with Ms. Lesli Sheppard today, this should fully resolve this staff comment.

MD&A
Results of Operations, pages 24-30

2. In my letter to you dated December 22, 2004, responding to the staff's last round of comments, I stated that the Company does include the cost of salaries and benefits for its in-house installation staff in general and administrative expense. As per my phone conversation with Jennifer Thompson today, I confirmed with her that this was an incorrect statement on my part. The Company does and always has included the cost of salaries and benefits for its in-house installation staff as part of its cost of sales. In fact, if you read through Amendment No. 2 you will see that all reference to the costs associated with the Company's in-house installers was deleted from the discussion of general and administrative expenses, thus creating the confusion. I apologize for the misstatement in my letter. As per my discussion with Ms. Thompson, this should fully resolve this staff comment.

REQUEST FOR ACCELERATION

Based on my discussions with Ms. Sheppard and Ms. Thompson and their confirmation that these changes and representations would resolve the remaining staff comments, at the request of management of The Flooring Zone, Inc., and pursuant to Rule 461, I am hereby requesting that the effective date of The Flooring Zone, Inc. SB-2 registration statement be accelerated to Monday, January 31, 2005 at 9:00 a.m.
