(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that during the quarter ended March 31, 2007 revenues will have decreased approximately 35% compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2006 as a result of the closing of the Company's store in Yulee, Florida, with its corresponding decrease in total sales, and an overall slow down in construction in the area where our store is located. The Company estimates that cost of good sold will have decreased approximately 50% during the three months ended March 31, 2007 as compared to the same period 2006. As with revenues, this decrease in cost of goods sold was partially the result of the closing of our Yulee store. The reduction in cost of goods sold can also be attributed to the Company purchasing inventory at more competitive prices during 2007. As a result of the foregoing, the Company anticipates gross profit will be 15% higher and net loss will be 55% lower during the quarter ended March 31, 2007 compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2006.
